

Click to enlarge

The Bible has not been changed. Through many hundreds of years of hand-copying worn-out scrolls, the Bible did not change. The En-Gedi scroll, discovered in 1970, and featured in the article above, is just one of many proofs of this fact.

“For, ‘all people are like grass, and all their glory is like the flowers of the field; the grass withers and the flowers fall, but the word of the Lord endures forever.’ And this is the word that was preached to you.”—1 Peter 1:24,25 NIV

God preserves His word, just as the scripture above says.

The En-Gedi parchment scroll of some verses of the book of Leviticus was written in Hebrew. It has been radio-carbon dated to the 3rd or 4th century CE, but has been paleographically dated to the first or second century CE! The amazing thing is that the wording of the text is the same as scrolls of Leviticus that were written 800-1,200 years later!